Staff changes- Ms. McKayla, Ms. Tia and Ms. Priscilla in Ledyard, we have a student volunteer from Ledyard High school name Teia helping in Ledyard; Ms. Robyn filling in at all locations; Miss Luisa in Norwich

Field trips- possibly apple picking?-Holmberg's doesn't do field trips; Debbie called Allyn's Red Barn, couldn't get ahold of anyone; will contact Whittles as well. Will look into pricing/timing for Abc/Waterford gymnastics; possibly fort shantok again

NAEYC update- Norwich is going for accreditation

Next meeting scheduled for- 1/28/19

Other-

-If your child is sick please keep them home; also if your child is sent home sick, they are excluded for the next day unless you bring in a doctor's note stating they are not contagious.

-Remember to change out your child's extra clothing for weather appropriate attire.

- Please wash hands upon entering the building.

-Pretoddler classroom is going peanut free

Parent agenda:

Fundraising- Holiday photos by Ms. Robyn November 10-Ledyard Center and 17-Norwich Center starting at 10:00 for $20 each, with Ms. Robyn donating a portion to PAC; both sessions will take place in Ledyard. Christmas hot cocoa backdrop as well as Christmas tree backdrop available along with plain colors. Amy and Jess have backdrop holders if needed.

- Unevent—to create a mock event to raise money for the parent council; have tickets, have children make thank you cards

Account balance- $611.75

Smartcare- In Ledyard we haven't had success when trying to upload pictures, but will keep trying; pin pad seems to be working well, occasionally it will state "please wait" for a length of time, feel free to ring the doorbell if that is the case.

- Neala will post on the class dojo story instead of emailing a weekly newsletter
